FACE TO FACE AGAIN WITH CONGRESS

President Personally Delivers
Message on Currency Reform Bill Today

DEMANDS IMMEDIATE ACTION ON THE MEASURE

Says It is Vital to Aid Business in Readjustment to Tariff
Schedule Revision

WASHINGTON, June 23.—It was announced this afternoon that the currency reform bill will be introduced simultaneously in both houses this week. Representative Glass introducing it in the house and Senator Simmons in the senate.

Wilson's Personal Plea

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Declaring the occasion to be vital to the country, President Wilson for the second time in his short administration, today came to the capitol and personally delivered his currency reform message to congress. The President demanded immediate action on the currency reform bill, which will be formally placed before congress immediately.

There were 126 seats vacant on the floor of the house when President Wilson read his message. Members of the administration assert this was due to the fact that many congressmen had been excused to enable them to visit their homes. The President concluded his message at 1:05 o'clock. The house immediately adjourned.

The keynote of his speech was that the currency measure is vital to the tariff bill and that its passage is vital to enable the business interests of the country to adjust themselves to the new conditions arising out of the revision of tariff schedules. He pleaded for government control of banks that they "might be the servants, not the masters of the people."

"It is not enough to strike the shackles from business. The duty of statehood is not negative merely. It is constructive also."

"The tyranny of business, big and little, lies within the field of credit. Shall we not act on this knowledge?"

"It is perfectly clear that it is our duty to supply a new banking and currency system which the country needs and which it will soon need more than ever. The only question is, shall we wait for reproaches at our slowness, or act now."

"There can be only one answer to that question. We must act now at whatever sacrifice to ourselves."

1 should be recast to my own deepest convictions of public obligation did I not press it upon you with solemn and urgent insistence. We must have a currency that will not be as rigid as now but that will be readily and elastically responsive to sound credit, expanding and contracting to meet the need of today."

BILL PROVIDES $500,000,000 EMERGENCY CURRENCY ISSUE

Declaring no president "would be audacious enough to play politics with the credits of the nation," President Wilson, addressing the newspaper correspondents today, said the whole weight of the administration would be put into the support of the currency reform bill, which will be introduced in the senate and house this afternoon or tomorrow. The President said he considered the currency plan in line with federal control of railroads.

The currency bill provides for an issue of $500,000,000 emergency currency to be available at times of financial stringency, to be retired when the emergency is ended.

WILL SIGN BILL FOR CIVIL APPROPRIATIONS

WASHINGTON, June 23.—President Wilson expected to sign the sundry civil appropriations bill today. Probably he will issue a statement giving his views on the provision of the bill, which exempts organizations of laborers and farmers from prosecution under the Sherman law.

3 INDICTMENTS IN McNAMARA AFFAIR ARE NOW DROPPED

McNamara, former secretary of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, now serving a term in a California penitentiary for his part in causing the explosion in the Los Angeles Times building, have been dismissed in the criminal court.

The indictments charged illegal straining and conspiracy to transport dynamite and were among 147 "dead cases" dismissed to clear the docket.

Beef Steak Fry Al Fresco For Pencil Pushers

COLORADO SPRINGS, June 23.—The National Press Association which convened here June 17th closed today with its annual banquet held out of doors. Instead of the banquet being the regulation hotel affair of the regulation six to eight courses beginning with soup and ending with nuts, the editors were treated to a true western style, out-of-doors "beef steak fry" at South Cheyenne Canon. They went to see the Seven Falls and afterwards "sat at table" under the towering granite walls of the canon. Dancing and a band concert at Stratton Park this evening will be the last affair before the editors return to their typewriters, shears and paste pots.

BUILDERS GIVE IN PARTLY AT CHICAGO

Some of Employers Allow the Locked-out Men to Return to Work Today

STRIKERS, HOWEVER, ARE FAVORABLE FOR FIGHT

Garment Workers Hurt in Rush
to Work as Strike Ends;
Press Feeders Begin Strike

CHICAGO, June 23.—There was rejoicing today in the ranks of the 25,000 building tradesmen recently locked out by building contractors, when reports were received of a break in the ranks of the contractors. They declare that suburban contractors will allow their men to return to work and that the police guard will be withdrawn from the buildings.

The strike conditions were, however, further complicated today when it was learned that a canvass of ballots cast by 25,000 garment workers had resulted in an overwhelming vote in favor of a strike unless their demands for shorter hours and the abolition of piece work are granted.

President Simon O'Donnell of the Building Trades Union, declares that only a few contractors in the Loop district are obeying the employers' lockout order, and that less than 2000 men are idle today.

20 WOMEN HURT IN PANIC

AS STRIKE WAS ENDED
CINCINNATI, June 23.—In their eagerness to return to work following the reading by the business agent of the Garment Workers' Union of an order sending them back, a score of women strikers were injured in a panic following a rush from the hall where a mass meeting was held. As soon as they grasped the meaning of the message there was a mad rush of men and women, who started for the exits. Many of the weakest were thrown to the floor and trampled.

TWO HUNDRED ON STRIKE

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—Two hundred members of the Press Feeders' Union struck here today against the Franklin Printing Trades Association because of the refusal to grant wage concessions.

KAHN WILL FIGHT GRAPE BRANDY TAX

Says Tax Will Ruin Wine Growers of California Without Raising Revenue

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Representative Kahn of California today charged that Senator Pomerene of Ohio, is directly responsible for the change in the tariff bill taxing grape brandy. He said it is significant that the brandy tax spells ruin for California sweet wine growers, while it leaves Ohio wine makers, who do not use grape brandy, untouched.

"We are working to change the committee recommendations," said Kahn, "and I am hopeful that the Senate will not ruin this great California industry. To tax grape brandy will not raise additional revenue but will defeat such an end, as California wine makers will be put out of business and unable to buy grape brandy."

$250,000 FIRE IN MONTREAL—4 DEAD

MONTREAL, Quebec, June 23.—Four firemen were killed, and $250,000 in property damage was done by fire today, which resulted presumably from the carelessness of a smoker.

JOHN C. FORSYTHE,
PATRICK HAMILL,
JOHN McDERMOTT,
WEBSTER MOLESON.

The fire occurred on St. Fabian street. A large district was destroyed.

JACK JOHNSON WOULD GO TO LEAVENWORTH PRISON

CHICAGO, June 23.—Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, through his attorneys today asked Federal Judge Carpenter to allow him to serve a year's imprisonment at Leavenworth (Kansas) instead of Juliet. Juliet is too close to Chicago, and the negro wishes to escape notoriety. His bail was reduced to $15,000 pending the decision.

ALUMNI OF HIGH SCHOOL HOLD MEETING

Transformation in Twenty Years Emphasized in Talks
by Graduates

GATHERING PROVED TO BE SUCCESSFUL

Officers Elected and Hereafter
These Reunions Will Be
Annual Affairs

With about 250 graduates present, the Santa Ana High School alumni Saturday night formed a permanent organization, and hereafter alumni reunions will be held at least once a year. The meeting Saturday evening was the first attempt at a reunion of Santa Ana graduates since 1904, and the large attendance proved quite conclusively that the addition of the reunion to commencement week proved to be popular with the alumni.

The early part of the evening was spent in the lower hall of the high school, where in some instances old friends met for the first time in years. The meeting in the assembly hall was called to order by T. E. Stephenson of the class of '98.

On the decision of the alumni to permanently organize, Stephenson was elected president and Miss Viola Hill, '05, was chosen secretary. In addition to these two as an executive committee are W. B. Williams, '97; Miss Blanche McDowell, '90; Miss Janet Smart, '04; Charles Martin, '19, and Malcolm Tedford, '13. Annual dues were fixed at twenty-five cents, payable to any of the officers of the association at any time of the year.

This month is the twentieth anniversary of the first graduation exercises held by the Santa Ana High School. A number of short, interesting talks were given. First the president, called upon Dr. William Mayne of Los Angeles, one of the three members of the pioneer class who were present. The others were Charles E. Hogle of Los Angeles, connected with the federal reclamation service, and Miss Lula Finley of Santa Ana, a teacher. He said that to start the school's first chemical laboratory the boys of the class did most of the work, including the digging of a trench for gas connection.

R. K. Bishop, '94, county horticultural commissioner, said that his class was known as "the hayseed class," because nearly every boy in it came from the country. He said it would seem that he was "getting old, for some of this year's graduates were not born when he got his diploma, though he decried feeling old in any sense of the word. When he went to school three rooms in the upper part of the old Central school building were all that were used by the high school, and the playground was where the courthouse now stands.

In introducing the next speakers, the chairman said that many graduates of the high school now hold important public positions, mentioning specifically deputy attorney general of California, two deputies in the city prosecutor's office in Los Angeles, city attorney of Fullerton, county surveyor and county clerk, and saying that the city attorney of Anaheim was a Santa Ana High School student. County Surveyor Leslie McBride, '05, and County Clerk W. B. Williams, '97, were followed in talks by Charles Martin, '10, and Lloyd Davies, '11.

A tribute was paid to Miss Sedalia Cubbison, now a teacher in Ontario high school, as one who had influenced the lives and careers of more graduates of the Santa Ana High School than any other person. Miss Cubbison's name was greeted with an applause that showed that her work is fully appreciated. Feelingly she recounted her pleasure at being present and her gratification that everywhere Santa Ana High School students are making good. As a teacher in this high school she saw sixteen classes graduate, and of this year's class fifteen had been pupils of her's while here.

J. A. Cranston, city superintendent of schools, in his talk said that often a school's standing is determined by the standing of its alumni, and Santa Ana High School's standing might well be determined in that manner. Just as the building put up in 1900 was a vast improvement over the old Central building, so will the new high school building be a vast improvement over the ones now in use. Last year there was a thirty per cent increase in the high school. This year there are four courses. Next year there will be twelve. With seventy-three graduating the night previous, the high school has graduated 715 pupils.

In an apt and characteristic manner, Malcolm Tedford, '13, made a speech for the "youngsters." Then came roll call by classes. As

BUILDING INSPECTOR IS TO MAKE OFFICIAL INSPECTION

City Trustees In Called Session Receive
Report—Trying to Find Out Legal Procedure

This afternoon the City Trustees, with President Ey absent, held a special meeting and received a written report from S. H. Finley, H. Clay Kellogg, F. H. Eley, G. E. Preble and H. H. Roper as to the condition of the Grand Opera House. That report said in part:

After a careful examination we found that the building had been well constructed, with a factor of safety of approximately 2 to 1, which, while providing for any ordinary test does not meet the requirements of the best practice at the present time. We therefore recommend that additions be made to increase the strength to carry a live load of 150 pounds per square foot with a factor of safety of 4 to 1.

Then follows a list of recommendations for changes and re-arrangement of exits.

This report was ordered sent to W. F. Lutz, owner, and N. A. Ulm, manager, of the opera house. Lutz, whose architects inform him that the present live load capacity is ninety pounds.

BOY PROGRESSIVE MOVEMENT ON IN ALL U. S. CITIES

NEW YORK, June 23.—Outlines for an organization in every city of a "Boy Progressive Movement" will be laid before the meeting of the New York Boys' Progressive League which meets at the Waldorf tonight. Colonel Roosevelt and other Progressive leaders have been asked to make addresses. A tentative plan which will be discussed will be the advisability of asking Progressive leaders in every large city to inaugurate a similar movement. Some believe it would be better to appoint a traveling organizer to visit the different cities.

RICHEST SENATOR'S COACH

WASHINGTON, June 23.—An emaciated, spavined, disreputable looking horse, drawing a ramshackle, out-of-date, rickety and much abused "sea going" hack stopped at the door of the White House the other day. A round shouldered, aged, negro "cabbie," his "plug" hat dentured and rusty, and his once black raiment, now green with age, looked anxiously through the glass doors at the entrance to the executive offices and waited. An old man emerged. Though neatly dressed he didn't look like the usual White House caller. He chewed tobacco and wore scraggly whiskers. He shuffled to the door and the tall figure hunched into the ramshackle vehicle. The negro waved his whip with a show of pride and the emaciated horse shuffled down the gravel drive into Pennsylvania avenue.

"Who was that?" inquired a visitor of one of the policemen.

"Uncle Ike" Stephenson, of Wisconsin, the richest man in the United States Senate," answered the policeman.

LOS ANGELES Y.M.C.A. TO HAVE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

LOS ANGELES, June 23.—The Los Angeles Y. M. C. A. is about to establish a department of agriculture by means of which the youth of the community may also be taught how to make two blades of grass grow in place of one, but more important how to tickle the laughing soil scientifically so that it may yield an abundant harvest. The "school" is to be in a sixty-acre class room at Huntington Park, and arrangements are being perfected to start the work in a week or ten days.

STEAMER IS TOTAL WRECK

KETCHIKAN, Alaska, June 23.—The Curacao, a Pacific Coast Company steamer, is a total wreck today after running at full speed into a rock at Warm Chuck on the west coast of Prince Wales Island. No lives were lost.

Calling

Mrs. Lamb—I simply must attend to my social duties, and I need so many things. What are considered proper calling cards this season? Mr. Lamb—Full houses, furs, flushes or straight, my dear.

"Pop!"

"Yes, my son."

"Does eating satisfy the appetite?"

"Well, the more a man eats, the more appetite he is said to have."

BURGLAR ENTERS HOUSE WHILE PASTOR PREACHES

Last night while Rev. E. J. Inwood was preaching to his congregation at the First Methodist Church, the parsonage was entered by a burglar. A plain gold ring, a pearl sunburst brooch and a small amount of money were stolen by the thief.

Rev. Inwood and his family were at home, and easily gained entrance through a rear window of the house, which is directly north of the church.

It is believed that the visitor's search of the place was only fairly begun when he was interrupted by the return of the family.

Officers were called. They made a careful search of the premises for clues, but were unable to find anything that seems likely to result in finding out who the burglar was.

This morning a photographer was called to make a picture of finger prints left on the window casing by the burglar.

M'NAB'S BOLT HIT POWERS THAT BE

President to Probe White Slave
Scandal Incident—Labor
Secretary in Case

HOUSE MAY ASK FOR ALL
PAPERS IN THE AFFAIR

McNab Has Jolt in Reserve;
Sees No Reason for Delay in
Maury Diggs Case

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Representative Kahn introduced two resolutions in the House today demanding that Attorney General McReynolds produce all documents referring to the postponement of the trials of Drew Caminetti and Maury I. Diggs, accused in California under the white slave act.

Wilson to Investigate

President Wilson today intends to personally investigate the resignation of Federal District Attorney McNab of California. The President said the fact that Secretary of Labor Wilson had taken the entire blame for the postponement of the Caminetti-Diggs white slave trial, because he wanted Anthony Caminetti, the father of the accused man, to familiarize himself with his duties as commissioner general of immigration uninterrupted, had caused his interest. He has called in all papers in the affair.

McNAB PLANS SECOND JOLT

FOR ATTY. GEN. McREYNOLDS
SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—Federal District Attorney McNab announced today that unless President Wilson accepted his resignation immediately he will fire another jolt at Attorney General McReynolds, which will be entirely unexpected. He said: "I am disappointed that Washington officials do not appreciate the seriousness of the situation." He accepted the explanation given in Washington for the postponement of the Caminetti case, but could not see what that had to do with Maury I. Diggs, also accused of violating the white slave act.

Secretary of Labor Wilson issued a statement assuming all responsibility for the postponement of the trial. In his statement he says:

"The attorney general postponed the trial of the Diggs-Caminetti case solely upon my request."

Caminetti's father wants to be present at the trial and Secretary Wilson does not want Senator Caminetti to leave Washington at this time.

FRIEDMANN CURE MAY COME TO COAST

New York Institute Planning to Establish a Branch in This State

SACRAMENTO, June 23.—The California Board of Health has no jurisdiction in the matter of the Friedmann tuberculosis institute establishing a branch in this state, according to Secretary William Snow of the board.

"If Dr. Friedmann's product is sent to California," said Snow, "it would be an interstate matter, and the state board has no authority to permit or prohibit such an institution."

Snow's statement followed the receipt of a letter from the Friedmann institute at New York, saying a branch will be installed in California.

WOULD EVADE ANTI-ALIEN LAW

WENATCHEE, Wash., June 23.—A Namba, a Japanese, has hit upon a plan to defeat the anti-alien land law by buying real estate on a contract which expires in 1917. By the time the contract expires, he expects to unload at a profit. There is no provision in the law covering such dealings.

BOAT CAPSIZES, NINE DROWN

NEW MADRID, Mo., June 23.—Nine members of a party of fourteen United States engineers and other government officials were drowned near here yesterday when the United States survey boat Beaver, which the party was aboard, was capsized in a storm.

What He Gave Up

"Have a cigar?"
"No, I gave up smoking to please my wife."
"I kept on smoking and gave up $40 for a new gown."

MARTIN FLIES NEW MACHINE

Glenn Martin left Santa Ana at noon today for East Newport, where he expects to fly his new hydro-aeroplane this afternoon. Martin leaves on Wednesday or Thursday of this week for Chicago, where he will enter four of his new machines. Since the meet at Chicago of last year Martin has made many improvements in his air-craft, and those who follow aviation matters say he is going to win many of the prizes at the big meet.

Glenn L. Martin's newest 1913 model seven-passenger carrying aerial yacht was assembled on the beach at East Newport yesterday, in preparation for an initial tryout today. After a thorough testing the air-and-water craft will be shipped to Chicago, where it will be entered in the Chicago-to-Detroit aerial cruise along the shores of Lakes Michigan and Huron.

The wings of the new aerial cruiser are thirty-five feet wide and have an area of 329 square feet. This gives a lifting surplus of 800 pounds between the motor and thirty-four gallons of gasoline. The pontoon, which is placed three feet below the boat-like body, is made of Spanish cedar and coated with linen and glue. With this machine aviation has reached a new stage of development. "I shall ordinarily carry thirty-five gallons of fuel," said Martin, "and when I do not have passengers I can carry enough to last all day. I believe that I can run from here to Santa Barbara without leaving the water, or go into the air and return to the water again at will. Having worked out the design and construction carefully, I feel almost as confident of what it will do as if I had tried it out in all respects.

"It will carry four passengers with the greatest ease and comfort. I believe I can leave the water and make a satisfactory flight with eight passengers aboard. It will have both speed and safety.

"One of the greatest improvements in the air cruiser is having the tail and rudder, as well as the motor, at all times clear of the water so that there will be but little interference between staying on the water and taking to the air. After trying other types of hydroplane I believe that I have now something that overcomes most of the difficulties experienced with them."

Martin has spent $5500 in building this first model and is working on plans for a more elaborate type.

The engine is an eight-cylinder Curtiss, and the builder says the arrangement of the driving mechanism, the gasoline feed and other details are worked out so that they are extremely simple and secure. The fact that the operator sits above and behind all the machinery makes escape easy, he declares, should anything happen to the pontoons in landing.

HIT HEAD-ON AT NEWPORT

Yesterday about noon two Pacific Electric cars had a head-on collision at Newport Beach, and the conductor of one car was cut on the head by a piece of glass. Passengers were shaken up, but so far as could be learned none was injured.

The collision occurred at a switch near Twenty-sixth street. An express car was approaching the place expecting to take a siding to allow a passenger train to pass. The passenger car was traveling at a fair rate of speed, and reached the siding before the express car had time to get off the main track. The front part of the passenger car was damaged as far back as the third seat, and the front end of the express car was battered in.

The motorman was put aboard an out-bound car to be taken to a physician.

ENGLAND'S NEXT KING CELEBRATES

Reaches 19th Birthday—Has Been Educated for Throne; Has Missed Boyish Fun

LONDON, June 23.—Telegraph operators at Windsor Castle worked overtime today handling hundreds of messages of congratulation which poured in from every section of the globe for the next king of England who is celebrating his nineteenth birthday today. Most of them were addressed to "His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales," etc., but many were more personal, wishing "David" good luck and long life. Edward is the first name of the Prince, but he is known to his family and close friends by his last name, David. His other names are Albert Christian George Andrew Patrick. Royal salutes were fired to-day throughout the British Empire and flags were hoisted on government buildings, all ships of war and over naval and military stations. The young prince received the congratulations of members of the royal family at Windsor Castle, where he is taking a few days' rest from his studies at Oxford. There was a luncheon party at the castle at noon and there will be a big banquet tonight.

Born in 1894, two years after the death of his father's older brother, young Edward has a big advantage over King George, in that he has always been educated for the throne. King George only came into line after the death of the Duke of Clarence, up to which time he had not been much in the public eye. The Prince is rather a shy young man without any particularly striking characteristics. He is popular with those with whom he has come in contact, but he has been very strictly brought up and has never had much boyish fun. At Oxford he is nicknamed "Prager-Wagner." Prince Albert, his brother, now cruising the West Indies as a midshipman, sent Prince Edward a safety razor. Not that Edward needs a facial lawn mower, for he hasn't begun to shave. It was just Albert's little joke on his king-to-be brother because Albert, who is only eighteen, has beaten Edward to the need of a razor.

FROG AND FISH FARM SOON READY

New Industry Will Be Ready for First Planting About Next Month

HUNTINGTON BEACH, June 23.—Owing to unavoidable delays, the fresh fish and frog farm recently established at Huntington Beach has not yet begun breeding but additional wells for its supply of water have been sunk and it is expected that by the first of July this interesting industry will be in operation. The plant, which is the property of M. A. Swanson of Los Angeles, is in charge of C. A. Howard, superintendent. The five lakes are being beautified with pond lilies and Japanese cane.

Thomas R. Talbert was elected president of the Pacific Linoleum and Oilcloth Company, which is soon to begin the erection of its plant here. Mr. Talbert is a prominent business man of this city and chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Orange county. The site for the factory has not yet been definitely selected but will be just outside the city limits of Huntington Beach, where other factories are at present located. This will be the only enterprise of its kind on this coast. It will employ about a hundred men all the year around.

The Holly sugar factory has practically completed its repairs and preparations for the coming season which is expected to begin about the middle of July. The factory is in excellent shape for handling the increased acreage controlled by it this year.

WHY MASTER COMES AGAIN

Interesting Lecture Was Given
by Pastor Sexton Yesterday Morning

A goodly congregation gave splendid attention at the Bell theater yesterday morning to the interesting lecture by Pastor E. D. Sexton of the International Bible Students' Association on "Why Jesus Comes Again." The speaker seemed thoroughly acquainted with the Scriptures, which he quoted very freely. He said in part as follows:

"Many have scoffed at the thought of our Lord's return, just as many scoffed at the announcement of His first advent. Thoughtful Christians, however, have come to see that Jesus' Second Advent is just as necessary as His First Advent, and that the Scriptures are very positive in declaring that the Master will return to earth at the close of this present age.

"Our Savior had a two-fold purpose in coming to this earth: First, to pay the penalty for Adam's sin, and second, to liberate Adam and his posterity who die in him, from the penalty of sin, viz.: death.

"Man could not be liberated from the death penalty until the ransom price had been paid. Jesus took Adam's place in the payment of this penalty. He died on the cross. After His resurrection to life again on the third day, Jesus postponed his second feature of His redemptive work for a future time. It will not be accomplished till His second coming. Then Adam and all his race, 'both the just and the unjust,' will be awakened from the sleep of death and will be fully liberated from the curse.

"God proposed that Jesus should have a Bride to assist Him in the wonderful work of liberating mankind from death and the grave. He set aside this Gospel Age for the selection of this Bride, which is to be composed of a definite number who are willing to follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth. This Little Flock, or as it is elsewhere called, the Church, is now on trial to see whether she will prove faithful unto death. She is the first one to receive any benefit from Christ's redemption. Those who are now faithful to the Lord unto death, will be numbered among the Bride, the Lamb's Wife, and will have part in the first resurrection.

"According to the Scriptures, as soon as 'the Lamb's wife hath made herself ready,' the Lord will come. There will be no need for Him to wait any longer. His first work will be to bind Satan for a thousand years so that he can deceive the nations no more till the thousand years be fulfilled.—Rev. 20:3. Next in order will be the resurrection. 'All that are in their graves shall hear His voice and shall come forth.'—Jno. 5:28. What a wonderful time of rejoicing that will be! 'Death and hell will deliver up the dead that are in them.' The work of deliverance shall have begun.

"During that 1000-year Judgment Day when Satan is bound, mankind will be reformed and brought back to perfection. All will be judged in truth and righteousness. Every one will be given a fair chance. The desire to drink shall be removed from the drunkard; the desire to steal from the kleptomaniac; ignorance from the heathen; insanity from the demented. Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing.—Isa. 35:5. All of this 35th chapter of Isaiah describes

WILLIAM ALLEN WHITE ON GOV. JOHNSON

William Allen White, who, next to Theodore Roosevelt, had more to do than any other man with the shaping and writing of the national Progressive platform at Chicago, has returned to his home in Emporia, Kansas, after his winter's sojourn in California. He is busily discussing in the editorial columns of his paper, "The Gazette," the achievements of the California Progressives.

The following editorial, under the caption of "A Great National Leader," shows in what high esteem Editor White holds California's governor.

"Hiram Johnson, governor of California, has come out of the recent session of the legislature in his state, one of the big leaders of the progressive movement in the United States. He is bigger than a mere party leader. The work of the Progressives in California under his leadership is the most important work done in any legislature in America. Of course, Governor Johnson did not pass all this fine legislation. But it was passed under his leadership, and while the credit for the good work is widely diffused, still, under the rules of the political game, and in all fairness, Governor Johnson is entitled to the gratitude of the Progressives of the nation for having brought California through such a splendid progressive achievement.

"He is in the list of the 'six best Progressives in America'; more than that, he is among the world's leaders of progress. He must be reckoned with in the calculations of all men who consider national politics in its concrete relations to history."

PERSONALITY AND RAIL-ROADING

The frightful rear-end smash at Stamford, Conn., the third in a two years' series of catastrophes along a short line of track, has national significance as the kind of thing the railroads seem helpless to stop. The rear-end collision is the awful price paid for the idea that mechanical devices can take the place of human vigilance.

Whether this particular calamity was due to the failure of the engineer, to fault of brakes or some other cause, it remains true that on most railroads there is an indifference to cautionary signals. It is the experience of the writer at least that the explosion of torpedoes is not commonly followed by much slackening of speed.

It takes a certain type of mind to make a good locomotive engineer. There is many a railroad president who is a success in his $25,000 job, who would make a poor bookkeeper. He has not the painstaking accuracy to transcribe a long succession of figures with perfect correctness. In the same way many a man who is ingenious and resourceful to the last degree in handling the massive forces of a modern locomotive, is unfitted for an engineer's job. He lacks the tenacious watch-dog quality of unrelenting vigilance.

On one road four men were reinstated after a suspension for running past signals. Three of them were killed in rear-end collisions within eighteen months, and the fourth had to be discharged for a repetition of the same offense. Their minds worked that way.

The rear-end brakeman has a very responsible post. In his brass buttons he seems a dignified figure to send running down the track to hold up the following train. Railroad sentiment may feel that block signals render his office perfunctory. But if he was always hurried back with a couple of torpedoes, many fatalities would be averted.

NEWSY NEWS FROM NEW YORK

(By Carlton Ten Eyck.)

NEW YORK, June 23.—New York's Chinatown, once so picturesque, soon will be only a memory. Came the tourists in the rubber neck wagons and commercialized the restaurants and tea rooms, and when Elsie Singel was murdered the police cleaned out the district and put the lid on the poppy. The crowning iconoclastic act that stripped the last vestige of glamour and romance from Chinatown came the other day when the man-killers of the Hip Sing Tong and the On Leong Tong made peace across the banquet table. The long war, perhaps the most fascinating thing about Chinatown, is now a thing of the past, a mere tradition.

Devotees of Chatham Square aver that "Chuck" Connors, the late "Mayor" of Chinatown, who died a few months ago, is either turning in his grave like a spindle or else is profoundly glad to be dead in these degenerate days of his old time haunts. The Yellow Triangle off Chatham Square, old feud ground of the tongs and the place of sudden assassinations in times past, today flaunts the five barred flag of the new Chinese republic with conscious rectitude, and everybody smiles. More wonderful than that, though, On Leong men walk openly on Pell street and brothers of the Hip Sing Tong sip their tea in Mott street without apprehension. The district, formerly the scene of all the ways that are dark and tricks that are vain, of which Bret Harte wrote, hardly knows itself under the new conditions.

The tong truce was brought about by District Attorney Charles S. Whitman, who broke up the police system, now candidate for mayor, and Judge Foster of the Court of General Sessions, and the protocol of armistice was signed at a great banquet at the Port Arthur restaurant. Ranging from bird's nest soup and shark's fin down to hickie nuts in countless courses, the banquet lasted for more than five hours.

From Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago and even as far away as St. Louis wherever the two tongs have chapters, the tong men came to attend the great "talky talk." Some of them had been involuntary exiles from New York until the district attorney recognized the agreement to end the war and they came with smiles on their faces. The visiting brothers were met at Grand Central and Pennsylvania stations by local tong men wearing suits of latest cut and huge yellow badges of welcome, and they were taken to Chinatown in taxicabs, American style. Nobody seemed to care a whoop how merrily the taximeters taxed, either.

left their boots outside the hotel in Detroit nor understand why we don't have portable bathtubs over here.

The enormous increase of national prosperity which the opening of the Panama Canal will shortly bring may cause the "money trust" to dissolve from over work.

Political changes in Mexico have gone so far as to prevent a large section of the populace from trying to cheer Porfirio Diaz through force of habit.

If the London suffragettes abolish polo and golf they will endeavor to make politics sufficiently interesting to compensate for the loss of sport.

The beef trust admits that sales have fallen off 40 per cent. Good for the spirit of the American people in refusing to encourage an outrageous monopoly!

Pugilists would be justified in forming a union for the sake of refusing to give Jack Johnson a card.

One can't help sympathizing with the Ohio husband who, while admitting that his missing wife may have been drowned, "fears" someone has hidden her.

A fine instance of the law of compensation is found in the fact that Alfred Austin didn't live to read the things that were written about him after he died.

Frank Hitchcock's claim that a bunch of post office novitiates couldn't possibly find out in three months all the things he didn't do in four years is pretty fair logic, at any rate.

Most of the entries in the human race are also-rans.

The man who doesn't get all that's coming to him is generally lucky.

Mr. Wilson made Mr. Bryan secretary of state and then appointed Editor Metcalf of the Commoner his civil governor of the Panama Canal Zone. Wonder if the President is trying to wreck Mr. Bryan's Commoner.

A woman has as much excitement getting her fortune told as a man has in making his.

Since there is a shortage of beef people should eat less veal and give the calves a chance to grow up.

Now that the army worm has appeared near St. Louis the secretary of war should worry.

The Builders
Talk about the imagination of a poet or painter, why the man with one real imagination is the man who builds great railways through the deserts and in the wilderness. He sees more than the mere day's work. Civic progress is the result of imagination.—Jarvis Hunt.

It was a great gathering of the tongs, and the peace festival lasted all night. The only familiar faces missing were when the Hip Sing and the On Leongs gathered in the banquet room were those of Mock Duck and "Chuck" Connors. Mock Duck was "put away" for quite a spell up the river and the "Mayor" passed away before the olive branch became the emblem of the "municipality."

New Yorkers can live like moles if they want to, never seeing the out-of-doors. It takes a rainy day to show the average man what he can do without ever exposing himself to the weather. For example, take the man working in one of the large office buildings in the financial district. He can get into the subway without leaving the building. At the Grand Central station he can emerge from the subway train and find restaurants and bars without even seeing out of doors.

At both Times Square stations there are barber shops, manicurists, drug stores, cigar stands, telephone booths, news-stands and such conveniences. Entrances from the subway station lead to clothing and jewelry stores, women's shops, confectioneries and what not. Except for the step between his apartment and the subway station, or his office and the subway station, the New Yorker should worry about the weather. He can satisfy the inner man and buy almost anything from a pin to a piano without going outside.

The government's activity against the tobacco trust will be a mere flash in the pan compared to the blow that the Non-Smokers' League of America will deal the tobacco manufacturers if they have their way in New York. After three years' agitation the Non-Smokers finally have persuaded the Public Service Commission of the city of New York to take up for consideration the proposition to prohibit smoking on summer cars. From time immemorial the car companies have allowed smoking on the four rear seats of all open cars. The league wants to stop it. Officials of the public service companies in Greater New York have been summoned to express their views on car smoking. Needless to say the tobacco users will attend the hearing without being summoned, and they will vehemently protest rules prohibiting them smoking on summer cars. Smoking was abolished on the elevated and in the subway because of the fire danger. Smokers say no such argument can be advanced against using the weed on the rear seats of surface cars.

The Champion Optimist.

We award the championship diamond belt for optimism to a resident of one of the rural districts of Scotland. As the story goes, an old man was sitting on the roof of his house during a flood watching the water flow past when a neighbor who possessed a boat rowed across to him.

"Hello, Bill," he said.

"Hello, Sam," replied the other.

"All your fowls washed away this morning, Bill?"

"Yes, but the ducks can swim."

"Apple trees gone too, eh?"

"Well, they said the crop would be a failure, anyhow."

"I see the water's reached above your windows."

"That's all right, Sam; them waders needed washin'!"—Boston Globe.

Have sold the cottage on West Second street, and want to sell my home place, 2220 North Main.

Good eight room house, porches, etc., roomy grounds, 80 ft. frontage, 280 ft. deep, lots of fruit, ornamental trees and shrubbery.

I also want to sell a mighty good foothill ranch in the Villa Park forestless section, 77 acres, part of it citrus land with ample water rights, balance of land foothill pasture, good house, barn, etc., $20,000. Might take some trade.

You'd better hurry. The P. E. will soon be building to Orange. The S. P. will collect and soon will be the limit line passing through Villa Park, the county be building good roads, the Standard Oil Co. strike oil at Olive.

Some one will buy these properties or I may change my mind.

STYLES IN MOURNING: WHITE IN HIGH FAVOR

According to Edith M. Weidenfeld in the Woman's Home Companion it is just as fashionable nowadays to mourn in white as in black. She says: "Ideas in regard to correct mourning have undergone many changes in the last few years. Today there is much more leniency than there has been in the past. With the exception of a few rules which should be closely adhered to, the period of mourning and its depth are really left to the individual."

"It is no longer considered necessary to swathe one's self in solid black from head to toe. Much white is introduced in both first and second mourning; even the widow wears white these days. In fact, it is now not only good style but very fashionable to dress entirely in white, the all-white costume being quite as deep mourning as the black one this year."

FOR MISS ADA WEST

June Bride-to-Be is Charming-ly Entertained at Home of Miss Helen Austin

Miss Helen Austin charmingly entertained a few of the close friends of Miss Ada West Saturday afternoon. The pretty affair was at Miss Austin's home, 319 East Chestnut street.

During the afternoon the girls tied a comfort for Miss West, tying in messages to be read in the new home at National City. During this busy time the merry chatter of the girls made an interesting combination of "work and play."

When the last tuft had been tied and the edges of the downy comforter turned in, Miss Austin invited the company into the dining room.

The table was daintily trimmed in tiny pink roses. These were artistically collected in a large basket that made the center piece. At each place was a miniature of the center piece.

The delectable four-course supper was a pleasant close to the afternoon. As the guests departed they were grateful to Miss Austin for her hospitality and generous in good wishes for the bride-to-be, whose wedding day is Monday, June 30.

Miss Austin's guests were Mrs. Della Uim Rogers of Los Angeles, Ada McFadden, Sallie Catland, Mabel Nickell, Mabel Morse, Viola Hill, Marguerite West and the honoree.

Woman's Club Outing

The members of the Woman's Club will leave here tomorrow on the 10:10 Newport Beach car for Newport Beach, where they will hold their annual outing at the home of Mrs. B. Utley.

By a misprint the date of this outing was given as Thursday in Saturday's issue of the Register.

Dinner for Grandson

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Walters of Fairhaven avenue, gave their little grandson, Master Melvin Walters of Riverside, a dinner party on Saturday last. The little gentleman has been spending two weeks with his grandparents.

The dinner was a farewell to a number of friends he has made while here. It was greatly enjoyed by the children, who did full justice to the many good things placed before them. Pink carnations and ferns were used in table decorations.

Master Melvin returned to his home in Riverside yesterday, his grandmother accompanying him to Los Angeles, where he was met by his parents.

French to Celebrate

The French colony of Los Angeles and Southern California will commemorate the 124th anniversary of the Fall of the Bastille by a big celebration to be held Monday, July 14, at the Turners' Hall, Los Angeles.

The celebration of July 14 is to the French people what the Fourth is to the Americans, and it will be given under the auspices of the "Ligue Francaise de Los Angeles et du sud de la Californie," one of the most important French societies in the Southwest.

STUDENTS' PIANO RECITAL

Miss Zoe Glidden Presents Her Pupils in Attractive Musical Program

An extremely interesting and instructive recital was given on Saturday afternoon beginning at 2:30 o'clock by several of the pupils of Miss Zoe Glidden at Miss Glidden's studio, 401 East Fifth street, there being about thirty people present in addition to those who took part in the program, which was quite varied in character, ranging from simple compositions by Margaret Martin to the heavy ones of Bach. The program was as follows:

1. "The Ride of Jack Frost," "The Cricket's Funeral," "The Frog's Jubilee," three compositions by Marshall Loepke, played by Harold Albright, a youth of 12, who shows remarkable talent for accuracy, memory, temperament and technique. In each of the three little descriptive numbers he brought out vividly the music pictures and showed keen appreciation of the composer's ideas.

2. "The Fairies' Waltz" (Lily Ruegg-Butt) and "In the Twilight" (Ludwig Schreyer) by Mildred Gleason, who has had only one year's tuition, but shows rapid advancement. She handles extremely difficult passages with beautiful finger movements, is accurate in her work and has considerable temperament.

3. "Beautiful Blue Danube" waltz (Strauss), Miss Maydell Jernigan. Her work shows much natural technique and expression. With her natural ability and under such tuition she should develop into a fine pianist.

4. "Tick Tock," "Scissors Grinder," "See Saw," "The Church Bell," four dainty little descriptive numbers (Margaret Martin) played by little Lillian Dowell, 8 years old, who shows remarkable memory for composition and key position, as well as thorough knowledge of the scales in all keys. She played each one of the numbers with much expression, and, at her teacher's suggestion, readily transposed them into any desired key. She had had only about ten months' training.

5. "Folk Song," "Knight Rupert" (Schumann), Harold Albright, who demonstrated his ability to handle the more pretentious compositions as well as the lighter ones.

6. "Elfin Dance" (Jensen), "Humoresque" (Dvorak), Mildred Gleason. Her analysis and interpretation, as well as flexible finger work was very good.

7. "Bourree" (J. S. Bach), "Solfeggietto" (C. Ph. E. Bach) and "Arabesque" (MacDowell), played by Norma Gleason. These three numbers differed widely; the first, heavy chord work, the second, dainty scherzo, the third brilliant, intricate, requiring all of them close attention to detail, extreme finger flexibility and wrist strength, as well as keen appreciation of what the composer meant when he wrote the music. Miss Gleason shows much talent and with care and application will make of herself an artistic performer. The recital reflected much credit upon Miss Glidden and all who were present were much pleased.

W. C. T. U. Meeting Tomorrow

The last meeting of the Santa Ana W.C.T.U. for the season will be held tomorrow afternoon at Birch Park at 2:30 o'clock. This will be a mothers' meeting and will be led by Mrs. E. H. McGhee.

Two Surprises and House-Warming.
Mrs. Helene Galbraith was treated to a surprise house-warming last Saturday afternoon by the Ladies of the Macabees, forty-three of the ladies being present. Another surprise was tendered to Mrs. Jules Goepfer at the same time and the same place. The latter, who has been the musician for the lodge, leaves soon for China, where the Goepfers will reside on a ranch.

Both ladies were made the recipients of gifts. Mrs. Goepfer being given a half dozen hand painted pie plates. Mrs. Galbraith, the long-time efficient secretary of the lodge, was given a hand painted china bowl and half a dozen individual bowls to match. She was also presented with a beautiful hand painted cup and saucer. The ladies were both delightfully surprised.

The Galbraiths have recently moved into a handsome new home at 1929 West Third street and the new house was well "warmed" with good wishes for the occupants. The afternoon was spent in a social way and was hugely enjoyed.

ALUMNI OF HIGH SCHOOL HOLD MEETING

each class was called, all present who graduated with it stood up. This proved to be an interesting feature, and showed that every class except one, '02, was represented at the meeting. Dr. Jesse Chilton, '97, called attention to the fact that there was one high school man present who goes even further back than the high school records of graduations. This man was Dr. George Bryan, who was raised at Orange and who is now a successful physician at Fullerton.

Dr. Bryan gave some interesting reminiscences of the early days. He entered the high school in 1888 with a class of four pupils that should have graduated in 1891, but finished a three-year course in one year.

The alumni was treated to a musical program, arranged by Miss Ely of the high school faculty. Miss Winifred Huser, '12, accompanied by Miss Grace Downing, sang most charmingly "A May Morning." Miss Louise Grouard, '10, in Dutch costume, including the wooden shoes, delighted her audience with a Dutch waltz, and for an encore gave an equally entertaining Irish dance. Miss Grouard was accompanied on the piano by Miss Ruth Larsen. Robert Paine, '12, gave a splendid tenor solo, accompanied by Miss Helen Clayton. The last of the musical numbers was a cornet solo by Julia Matthews, a high school sophomore, whose talent as a musician was much appreciated. He was accompanied by Miss Lena Sebastian.

With Malcolm Tedford leading, the high school song was sung again and again, that the old-timers might learn it. It is a splendid song, one that has come to the high school to stay.

While a large portion of those attending the reunion were residents of Santa Ana, many came from other places. Among the latter were Dr. W. A. Mayne, C. E. Hogle, William L. Birch, Ridley C. Smith, Elizabeth Lesley Farmer, Flora Madden Faulkner, and Margaret Gardner of Los Angeles; Dr. and Mrs. Menges, Dr. Jesse Chilton and Dr. George C. Bryan, of Fullerton; Margaret Kerr Henderson of Cleveland, O.; Georgia H. Brown of Hemet, Miss Margaret Paxton of Orange, Vera Pryor Wittlin of Huntington Beach.

BIGGEST CLASS IN SCHOOL'S HISTORY

Anaheim Plain Dealer: Commencement exercises of A. U. H. S. were held Thursday evening at the high school auditorium, thirty bright boys and girls receiving diplomas of graduation. It was the big event in the school life of the graduating class, and one to which each member had looked forward to with joyful expectation. A number of the class members will take higher courses of study in the big educational institutes of the state, reaching a goal established in early school life. Not only was the class of '13 the largest in the history of the school, but it was also one of the brightest.

Attendance at the exercises was large, the auditorium being filled to capacity. The stage was resplendent with the class colors, flowers and greenery, artistically blended and producing a pretty effect.

The program was good throughout. The salutatory, delivered by Hans Storm, and the valedictory by Miss Helen Goodale, were able efforts and elicited much well merited applause. Student selection by Earl Fraser, Howard Krause, Senior Male Quartette, Miss Helena Goodale, Senior Girls' Sextette, Clarence Chamberlain and Will Webb and readings by Miss Kathryn Hand and Miss Evelyn Finney were all well rendered and greeted with generous applause.

Benediction. Members of the graduating class are Misses Helena Goodale, Emily Spaeth, Freida Maas, Estella Webb, Gladys Gunnelt, Maudie Souler, Evelyn Finney, Kathryn Hand, Cecil Trindle, Orilla Evans, Ola McClellan and Winifred Inman, and the Messrs. ## HIS DECISION IS IMPORTANT

Riverside Judge Says Water Stock Cannot Be Made to Go With Land

Ruling is That Shares Are Transferable Same as Shares in a Bank

RIVERSIDE, June 23.—Judge Denmore has handed down a decision in the case of the Riverside Land Company vs. Joseph Jarvis that is of wide interest in Southern California, for the reason that it affects the status of water stock in various corporations in this part of the state.

The company brought an action against Jarvis to obtain certain shares of water stock of the Riverside Water Company. This stock, the company claimed, was appurtenant to the land, on the grounds that the company was a natural concern.

The court holds that the shares of stock are transferable, the same as shares of stock in a bank or public service corporation. This ruling is based on the contention of the court that the stock of the Riverside Water Company cannot be appurtenant to any land to which the water of such system was originally dedicated by the predecessors in interest, the Riverside Land & Irrigating Company.

Water stock formerly belonging to the latter company was used on the lands in question, and the court holds that since this company is a public service corporation, the Riverside Water Company is also, insofar as the shares of stock applying to these lands now are concerned.

MILLION LADY BUGS TO SAVE FRUIT TREES

SAN BERNARDINO, June 23.—A million lady bugs are to be turned loose in the fruit districts of the county. Horticultural Commissioner S. A. Pease has received from the state's insectary six cases of the bugs and has sent word to the ranchers who need them to come and get a supply. The bugs are death to the varieties of aphids which attack fruit trees.

At last, summer suit weather is here and every man will want a fresh, new, comfortable suit. We have a splendid line of summer suit fabrics, and will guarantee to give you a perfect fit. Let us show you.

J. HAM LEWIS IS "MOVIE" DEVOTEE

Conspicuous With Pink Whiskers and Candy "Kisses" on His Nightly Rounds

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The wave of Jeffersonian simplicity that has overspread the official circle of Washington since President Wilson came in is contagious. It has spread to that staid old crowd of heretofore live-by-the-book only senators. James Hamilton Lewis, Senator from Illinois, whose mental capabilities are only exceeded by his strict adherence to formalities, is the latest victim. Characteristically attired, immaculate in every respect even to the fastidious manner in which he combs that famous "pink" beard, the Senator has joined the ranks of the commoners and spends a lot of his spare time at the movies. Almost nightly, "Jim Ham," accompanied by Senator Shepherd of Texas or another of his colleagues, can be found in one of the innumerable movie houses which can be found on almost every block along Pennsylvania avenue from the Capitol to the Treasury department. Senator Lewis invariably carries along a bag of candy "kisses" which he plainly enjoys between conversations.

CHIVALRY BELIEVED TO HAVE PULLED SENATOR OUT OF HOLE

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The colleagues of Representative Gordon Lee of Georgia are joshing that "high strung Southern gentleman" for what they term his greatest act of Southern chivalry in stepping aside to permit Mrs. Woodrow Wilson to choose the postmaster at Rome, Ga. A bunch of candidates for the office and the nice little salary that goes with it were worrying Lee into sleeplessness and Lee feared to appoint one without causing hard feeling from the others. Mrs. Wilson is said to have asked him to appoint an old friend of hers who had not been a candidate. Mrs. Wilson's friend got the job and now Lee is trying to explain that it was not chivalry but mere coincidence that made him choose Mrs. Wilson's old friend for the place. Lee retorts, "Taint so," when some people say he merely grabbed the loophole of escape from an embarrassing situation offered by the President's wife.

CHORUS OF 1000 TO SING IN LOS ANGELES IN JULY

LOS ANGELES, June 23.—When the International Christian Endeavor Convention is held here July 9-14 one of the largest choruses ever gathered together will sing.

The first joint rehearsal of nearly 1000 voices from the combined choruses of Pasadena, Long Beach and Los Angeles will be held Monday night at the First Congregational church.

L. P. Peckham, musical director of the Bible Institute, is to direct the choruses. Three rehearsals of the combined orchestra will be held. The first will be on next Monday, the others on June 30 and July 8.

AT THE COURTHOUSE

MOTHER LOSES IN THE SUIT

An action in which about $150,000 worth of property near Fullerton is concerned has been decided by Judge Wilbur of Los Angeles in favor of the defendants. The suit was brought by Mrs. Josephine des Granges against three of her children, John and Joseph des Granges and Mrs. Ida Krell. The defense alleged that the children have an interest in the property, that the mother's interest is merely a life interest. The mother contended that the title was hers without restriction. The decision is in favor of the two sons and daughter. E. P. McCreary represented the plaintiff and Williams & Rutan and French & Avery the defendants.

FRANCE PROTECTS MISS PANKHURST

Regard Her as Symbol of New Force That Will Fight Foe of France, Alcoholism

PARIS, June 23.—No action will be taken by the French government toward expelling Miss Christabel Pankhurst, the English militant suffragist, now claiming asylum in France. It was generally admitted that the British authorities in a secret note delivered to the French government today signified their desire that this step be taken.

The attitude of the government here is that Miss Pankhurst is a political prisoner, and likewise a woman, and that the demand that she leave France would be contrary to the general custom of nations. It is likewise said that were France to expel Miss Pankhurst, such a hue and cry would be raised all over the country that those responsible would never hear the last of it. French feminists declare they would immediately take her part since the English suffragettes are indirectly fighting the battles of their French sisters.

Alcoholism in France is said to be largely responsible for both the small birth rate and the high death rate, a double evil which statisticians say will wipe France off the map unless stopped. In 1910 (latest available figures) 88,880 new-born babies died in France, mostly because of alcoholic fathers and abstemious mothers. French women say if women had the vote the sale of alcohol and absinthe would be better controlled and there would be more births and less deaths. Miss Pankhurst is therefore regarded in France as a sort of symbol, representing new ideas and new life, and those who are in a position to know say she is not to be molested.

LIBRARIES AND THE FOREIGNER

Gov. Sulzer of New York Says Public Library is Great Factor in Education

HAINES FALLS, N. Y., June 23.—The relation of the public library to the foreign population of the United States was the important topic discussed here today when the American Library Association met at the Hotel Katerskill in the thirty-fifth annual convention. Governor Sulzer was the principal speaker. He declared that the public library is one of the greatest factors in helping foreigners to adjust themselves to American conditions. Henry E. Logie, for several years secretary of the Wisconsin Free Library Association, and ex-member of the Wisconsin legislature, spoke on "The World of Print and the World's Work." Dr. Herbert Putnam, librarian at the Congressional Library in Washington since 1899, discussed the future of the library and later held the same position in Boston. Other prominent librarians attending today were Edward F. Stevens, Pratt Institute Free Library of Brooklyn; Arthur E. Bostick, St. Louis Public Library; Miss Mary Frances Isom, Oregon Library Association, and Matthew S. Dudgeon, Wisconsin Library Association.

TUMULTY'S LITTLE JOKE
WASHINGTON, June 23.—Joseph P. Tumulty, presidential secretary, in the role of a floorwalker and the White House offices pictured as a political department store, was the shock given the other day to Representative Britten of Illinois. Britten called to see Assistant Secretary Tom Brahaney about an appointment with the President. By mistake, he was shown into Tumulty's office. Not Tumulty, as has been oft told before, is as Irish as they come—and proud of it. He is jealous because Tom Brahaney can recite Irish poems and speak a more delicious brogue than he can on occasions. Besides, he is the one who is always sartorially perfect. Tumulty might get plenty of new wrinkles from his unwrinkled clothes. Tumulty frequently guff Brahaney for his fussiness in dress. "Did you want to see me?" asked Tumulty when Britten was shown into the federal column advancing to

WHEW! WHAT'S THAT?

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Visitors to the capitol the other day elevated their noses, wrinkled their brows and breathed carefully in little gasps, of carbolic acid to clean 'em.

Everywhere was an odor that was a cross between an embalming room and a chemical laboratory. Representative Bowdye, of Oklahoma, on entering the building, took one long sniff, and asked, if anything had died in the corridors. Then it came out that it was only the annual cuspidor cleaning day when the bright, shiny "gobboons" used in the Senate chamber were being scrubbed with a carbolic acid solution. There are 500 of the cuspidors and it took a lot of carbolic acid to clean 'em.
